Kramer Reunion.

A most interesting and successful family reunion was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. B. Kramer, of Smithtown, in celebration of the doctor's seventy-eighth birthday, on Sunday, June 26. The immediate members of the family were all present, being five sons, one daughter, four daughters-in-law, one son-in-law, nineteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren as follows: Mr. and Mrs. S. D. M. Kramer and family, Neva, Samuel and Fred, of Clarksburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kramer and family, Sidney, Marion, Joseph and Charles, of Fairmont; Mr. and Mrs. Worth H. Post and family, Caroline, Elizabeth, Herman, Mary, Paul, Ellsworth and Alia, of Baxter; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kramer and family, Asia and Freda Gay, of Smithtown; Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Kramer and family, Allen, Martha, and Charlotte, of Smithton; Mrs. George Watson and two daughters, (great grandchildren) Kathleen and Alice, of Morgantown; and Baltzer Kramer, the "lone bachelor" of Mount Clare.

A handsome leather couch was presented to Mr. Kramer by the children and the day was spent in pleasant conversation and songs, intermingled with short readings by the younger members present. One special feature of the occasion, and in fact a most important event, was the dinner that was served by "Aunt Sis," who, by the way, is noted for her excellent cuisine of long standing.

A number of other relatives and friends called during the day to extend congratulations and best wishes, among whom were M. I. Hutchinson and daughters, Laura Lee, Irene and Martha, and son, Melville, C. E. Hutchinson and sons, Claude and James and Lee, of Fairmont; Mrs. Kate Merrifield and the Misses Alina and Belle Merrifield, of Mount Harmony; Edmond Watson, Miss Rose Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Health Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clate Stansbury and others, of Shinnston.

of the defacto government. General Marcello Caraveo, former Orozco leader and adherent of Huerta, is now occupying a command at the Mexican field base at Villa Ahuamada. With the American demands before Carranza, the heaviest guard yet maintained was bivouaced about the two international bridges last night. From the Mexican side came reports that practically the entire former garrison was withdrawn to Villa Ahuamada, eighty-three miles south. It is said a large command is encircling there. Two troop trains, one of which is attached General Gonzalez's private car and two cars of foodstuffs, are waiting in Juarez to carry the remnants of the garrison to the field base should hostilities develop.

coast. The Atlantic fleet will not be ordered to Mexican waters, he said, except "under exceptional conditions."

Consular advices during the day from the few state department representatives in Mexico reported quiet in the vicinity of their posts.

A report from Frontera on the east coast said ten Americans there refused positively to leave Mexico. Those still in Mexico City, a small number, also are expected to remain. Most of them have American wives. Fifty Americans at Mazatlan are going to stay; about the same number at Tampico and two in districts near the border are also going to stay even in the event of war.

State department officials took formal notice today of the activities in the United States of agents of the Carranza bureau of information. Reports as to conditions and international relations are telegraphed from Mexico City to the United States by the bureau for publication. Officials suggested that the American press should scrutinize these reports carefully before using them.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

INDIANS TO ENLIST.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Fifteen hundred Sioux Indians in South Dakota have offered to enlist in the military service of the United States in the Mexican emergency. The offer came in a letter to Senator Johnson, of South Dakota, who today notified Secretary of War Baker. The senator was informed that the Indians must restrain their patriotic desire to fight for their country unless there was a call for volunteers.

MARYLAND

Troops Will Pass through This City Some Time Tomorrow on Way to Border.

Company G., as part of the First Maryland Infantry, will pass through this city sometime tomorrow enroute to San Antonio, Tex. The regiment received orders to be ready to entrain in forty-eight hours at 5 a. m. Monday, and Monday night would down the street of Camp Harrington that the First regiment would go to San Antonio under Funston's supervision.

It will require at least four special trains to transport the Maryland regiment which will go over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to St. Louis to be routed direct to the border. As these trains are moved with the utmost care travel is very slow, never exceeding twenty-five miles an hour. The trip to the border will consume more than three days.

It is probable that the "rookies" will be sent to the border without uniforms or equipment. They will get their military outfits at the border, where the war department is concentrating great quantities of supplies.

VANNORT CALLED

By Adjutant General Bond to Go to Aviation School to Prepare for Service.

Clarence Vannort, second lieutenant, Company K, First regiment of the West Virginia National Guard, will leave this city tonight or Wednesday to enter an aviation school to study the art of flying so when the first regiment is called to the front it will have an aeroplane with the company.

Captain Glenn W. William, of Company K received a message from Adjutant General John C. Bond, of Charleston, Tuesday morning asking when Vannort could report. Captain Williams answered the message by saying that Vannort was ready at any time and he expects an answer sometime Tuesday afternoon or evening designating where Vannort is to go to receive his training.

Recently one officer from each regiment was selected by a popular vote of the officers in the regiment and Vannort was the lucky man in the First regiment.

HEAVY SUIT CASES

Packed with Liquor Are Seized from Three Men When Arrested at Station.

With four of the biggest and heaviest suit cases yet seized from alleged violators of the prohibition law here, T. Waldo, W. Cork and Sanford Lewis were arrested late Monday night by officers of the local railroad station and carried the cases into an automobile standing in the dark at the western end of the train sheds. The suit cases contained 217 points of liquor. Deputy Sheriff Laco Wolfe and Carson Wines, special officer, made the arrest and seizure.

All the suit cases were properly labeled, but it is the contention of the officers who made the arrests and seizure that in carrying them from the train and in placing them in the automobile, each was guilty of carrying liquor for another, but Tuesday afternoon the charges against Cork and Waldo were withdrawn and Lewis only was held for a hearing, or trial, later by Magistrate Jackson V. Carter, before whom he furnished the usual bond.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, issues the following warning: "It is reported to me that there is a woman soliciting funds from our business houses for home missions in the name of the First Baptist church of this city. The woman is not a member of our church nor has any one any authority from our church to solicit money for missions in any such way. All our mission funds are contributed and dispensed through regularly constituted channels. This statement is made that our business people may be protected against imposture."

COMPANIONS IN GROWING TO GREATNESS

Are the State of West Virginia and Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

BALTIMORE, June 27.—Speaking at the dinner commemorating the fifty-third anniversary of West Virginia's admission into the union, held at Martinsburg, June 20, George H. Campbell, assistant to President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad pointed out forcefully the interdependence between communities and transportation systems and the importance of harmonious relations in the interest of substantial development.

"When West Virginia became an independent commonwealth," said Mr. Campbell, "the Baltimore and Ohio was somewhat of a embryonic transportation system which had survived thirty-five years of experimental practice which if necessary meant limited progress."

"The gross earnings of $7,659,000 in 1863, the year West Virginia became a state, are considerably under the monthly earnings of the company at the present time; and while this represents a tremendous development in transportation, it is gratifying to know that West Virginia and other states served by the company at the present time; and while this represents a tremendous development in transportation, it is gratifying to know that West Virginia and other states served by the company have made possible the growth of the railroad."

Mr. Campbell said that in order to keep pace with the trade expansion of West Virginia and its neighboring states, the Baltimore and Ohio spent $17,300,000 in improvements in West Virginia between 1910 and 1916. The road has 7,609 employees in the state whose annual compensation amounts to $6,600,000. Besides these disbursements the Baltimore and Ohio purchases annual material and supplies to the extent of $1,500,000. The total mileage of main tracks is 1,406 miles, an increase of 173 miles since 1910. There are 441 employees of the company in Martinsburg earning $30,000 a month.

Already the second state in the production of coal, Mr. Campbell estimated that the annual output of 74,000,000 tons a year will be increased in enormous proportion, as with upwards of 6,000,000 acres of coal deposits it is believed that 60,000,000,000 tons of fuel are yet available.

The Man Who Knows Wears Nusbaum's Clothes

Now's the time for Men's Serge Suits—and this is the Store

We have made a particular study of Serge. The study begins in the choosing of the lightest weight that can be trusted to hold its shape, color and good looks. Yet, some men may have a notion that they can't get a Serge Suit cool enough for warm days. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The skeleton lined idea has revolutionized the cloth Suit. The Coats are not burdened with a bit of superfluous weight. It takes tailoring of more than ordinary cleverness to produce such clothes—the brands we have are noted for that.
